

Account Manager (Corporate Comms) WA Communications

Job Description

WA Communications is looking for an ambitious and enthusiastic corporate communications consultant with a strong track record in securing high-profile media coverage to join our award-winning, growing team.

WA is a strategic communications consultancy helping organisations achieve policy and reputational outcomes. We're integrated in approach, bringing together public affairs, corporate communications, digital, research and creative services. We're specialists in sectors where government action, media interest and public impact are often interlinked, including energy, education, financial services, healthcare and transport.

Our team is one of the UK's leaders in strategic communications. Our clients, whether global giants, leading charities or blue-chip brands, come to us for help navigating complex communications challenges of multi-stakeholder environments.

We're motivated towards our core purpose of great people, doing great work, in a great company. We're a people-first business meaning clients get support from the best people, who are motivated to succeed. We bring about change for clients and communicate their impact in society.

Everyone at WA gets opportunities to do impactful work that achieves results for clients and socially valuable outcomes, tackling business challenges through strategic communications. We have a dynamic, collaborative and supportive management ethos that inspires people to be at their best. We're fun and sociable too.

This position is a fantastic opportunity for an aspiring corporate communications consultant or in-house press officer / communications manager eager to take their career to the next level. You'll get involved across our client base, driving often integrated programmes forward through impactful media and reputational outcomes, and gain experience in business development. You'll be an expert in spotting news stories and a strong writer. You'll play an influential part in shaping thought-provoking campaigns, coordinating effective delivery and solving client problems. There'll be excellent professional development to help you extend your skills and push ahead in your career.

WA is based in Victoria, central London. Our success is underpinned by our independence and partnership model – giving us the flexibility to advise, invest and innovate around what our clients and people need.
